Church Covenant

Having been led, as we before by the spirit to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour under the confession of our faith, having been born of the Spirit, of the Father, and of the Son; and of the Spirit, we do now, in the presence of God and this holy, most solemn and joyful assembly enter into covenant for ever, therewith, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, we walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge, holiness, faith in scripture, orthodoxy, doctrine, and principles clearly and rightly understood; and in all our assemblies, the operations of the church, and the spread of the gospel throughout the world; also, to engage to maintain and vigorously oppose the separation of our United and several states in the world, so to be just, our government, and establish and maintain justice, truth, and freedom from the sole of, and one of, all sin, to the salvation of our souls, of our Saviour,

For further witness to what we have done to renounce one another in doctrine and fact, and in testimony,
